

DAY ANALYTICS IN REAL LIFE

Traveling 📱

Plan: First, we decide the place like mountains, seabeach, forest or maybe a place with a little bit of mountains and sea beach, adventure trips.

Prepare: What is my budget, how will I get the money and how many days I want to go for.

Process: Then I decide which place (Trending or Offbeat), divide the money on various parts like how much I want to spend on transport, Stay, food, emergencies, shopping, adventure sports.

Analyse: I decide the itinerary according to my budget and days available. Look for budget friendly stays, pinpoint the spots I want to cover and how much time I want to spend at that particular spot. What all things are special: food, items for shopping, Share: I share with my friends and family for identifying the gaps. Hotel booking. Transport facilities booking. Communicate with my co-travellers and the book the hotels and transport.

Act: Then I finally go for it and start my journey.
